

Due to time constraints, we are unable to complete the questionnaire but rest assured that The Alberta Party including candidates Ryan McDougall and Paul Hardy take education very seriously:

- The Alberta Party believes in a strong, publicly funded education system.
- The leader, Stephen Mandel, has recently announced intent to double the number of teaching assistants.
- Early Education is a high priority for the Alberta Party.
- The Alberta Party will fully fund education including funding increasing enrolment.
- The Alberta Party has no plans to alter current relationships and contracts with teachers.
- Teachers are very important and should play a fundamental role in guiding the course of education in this province.
- Protection of students with through a multifaceted approach including limiting class size, GSAs and addressing special needs is a very important principle we intend to uphold.

Although the specifics in your questionnaire are not individually addressed, The Alberta Party is a party that values its citizens and strives to support all through transparent evidence-based processes.
